

THE STARS AND BARS

The Rebel Flag Flung to the Breeze at Atlanta.

AN OVATION TO JEFFERSON DAVIS.

The Streets Through Which He Passed Carpeted With Flowers--Cheers for "Dixie" as the Tune is Played by a Band.

ATLANT, April 30.—Arrangements for the reception of Jefferson Davis in Atlanta are on a grand scale, and it has been the talk of the entire state for days past. The city early this morning began to put on holiday attire, and by noon the red, white and blue was to be seen on every hand. While the national flag largely predominated, the stars and bars were by no means unobtrusive, and pictures of Confederate officers are everywhere to be seen. Every train into the city today has been loaded, and the presence of at least one hundred thousand strangers is looked for tomorrow.

The arrival of Davis proved one of the great events in the history of the city. Although the train bringing him and the reception committee was not due here until 2:45, long before noon people began to gather in the vicinity of the station, nearly all wearing badges or carrying flags or banners. By 2 o'clock the throng in that vicinity was so dense that it could be approached only with difficulty, while the streets through which Davis was to pass were like a river of people. For hours the crowd stood, and during the season or waiting more Confederate talk was indulged in than has been heard in Atlanta for many years. The sentiments expressed were naturally those of regret and illustrated the fact that the Southerners are still loyal to the memory of the lost cause. The reception for Davis was expected to last for many days, and every one seemed to delight in showing it. At 2:30 o'clock the Confederate Veterans' Association, seven hundred strong, were drawn up in line in front of the depot, and a band played "Dixie," which called forth cheers. At 3:30 the train bearing Davis and party arrived and was greeted with prolonged cheers, as Davis emerged from the depot, accompanied by Gov. McBurnett and Mayor Hittie. As they entered a carriage another prolonged shout went up, and Davis acknowledged by rising and bowing to the people with a smile. Many veterans in the crowd rushed toward the carriage, one of them bearing a Confederate flag in his hand, but they were stopped by mounted police who were keeping the way clear for the carriage, which at once was driven rapidly on its way, followed by others bearing the reception committee. Davis was very much fatigued and at his own request the committee attending his reception were very materially curtailed. The streets through which he was driven were lined with school children, some six thousand in number. The children's hands were full of flowers and as the carriage bearing the ex-President appeared the flowers were cast before it and the street became literally carpeted with flowers. Upon reaching the residence of Mrs. Hill, where he will be entertained, Davis immediately sought much-needed rest, and the crowd soon after dispersed. A great day is looked for tomorrow.

Six Hundred Men Locked Out.

PHILADELPHIA, April 30.—About six hundred men, machinists, carpenters, engineers, laborers and mechanics of various kinds, employed in the shops of Allison's car works, thirty-first and Chestnut streets, were paid off at noon today with notice that their services were no longer required. The difficulty has been brewing at the works for some time past. The men demanded an increase of wages and last Wednesday night the firm granted the men an increase of from six to ten cents in various grades of the works. The men were made as a compromise, the men originally demanding from thirty to one hundred per cent advance. The shops were closed up when the men came to work today. Allison car works employ nearly seven hundred men, and of this number ninety per cent are out of work as a result of the difficulty.

Trying to Requite the Montgomery Affair.

ATLANTA, April 30.—In the Assembly today during debate on the amendments to the capital supply bill involving the employment of ex-slaves, reference was made to the evasion to Jefferson Davis, at Montgomery. Mr. Speaker reported the bringing up of the bloody shirt, and Mr. Green declared the Republicans were trying to revive the strength of old prejudices for party purposes. Maj. Haggerty referred to Davis as a ghost who troubled the South as much as the North by his revisiting the scenes of his former activity. The matter was then dropped.

Hanged at Washington.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—Louis Sumnerfield, white, and Richard J. Lee, colored, were hanged at the city jail at 11:30 o'clock this morning. Sumnerfield died without a struggle but Lee kicked several times. Both were wonderfully well. The drop was free fall. Sumnerfield murdered his wife, Christiana Sumnerfield, and his son-in-law, George Sumnerfield. The double murder was committed at Eisenbraun's saloon on Maryland ave., near Twelfth st., N. E., on November 24, last.

The Shooting Unfortunate.

ST. LOUIS, April 30.—The owner's inquest upon the body of John Gibson, the striker who was shot by the non-union workman, Wm. E. Withers, Wednesday morning was held today. The jury was out three minutes after hearing the testimony. They declared Withers responsible for the death of Gibson and that the shooting was justifiable.

NEARING AN END.

The Citizens' Committee at St. Louis Announce That the Strike Will Be at an End Tomorrow.

ST. LOUIS, April 30.—The Missouri Pacific strike is nearing an end. The second proposition of the citizens' committee is under consideration by the Knights of Labor general board. This proposition is simply a request that the strike be declared off, coupled with the declaration that the strikers will all be re-employed, at least all of those who have been guilty of no crime. These promises were put in such shape as to indicate that good mechanics are wanted in the Missouri Pacific shops, and while it seems under consideration, the real facts are that it has been practically determined to accept the proposition. By Sunday morning, at the latest, a formal declaration that the strike is at an end will be published.

IT BECOMES MURDER.

William Cousins' Victim, Cleo Scott, of Kalamazoo, Dies of Her Wounds.

KALAMAZOO, Mich., April 30.—This morning Cleo Scott, the colored woman who was shot by William Cousins, in a quarrel about an abandoned wife woman, died from her wounds. The charge against Cousins was thereupon changed to murder. Cousins kept his position keenly. The woman has slipped.

She Knew Kaiser Wilhelm.

DETROIT, Mich., April 30.—Three weeks ago Annie Westhoff, a young married woman living with her consanguineous hand on Beaudin st., was obliged to leave the house by her mother-in-law. She went to the county house and there died three weeks ago. At 2 o'clock this afternoon she was buried in a pauper's grave at Woodlawn cemetery. A rumor that Annie was related to Emperor William, of Germany, between whose agents and Undertaker Blake several cablegrams had passed, was founded on the fact that Annie's father was a German, and that her mother, who was an attaché at the German court.

Striking Longshoremen.

EAST SAGINAW, Mich., April 30.—The strike of the longshoremen this morning has extended to all boats loading by them at this end of the river, that course being decided upon at a meeting last evening. The stevedores' union is still leading their boats and the rest are without crews. A meeting left this morning for Bay City to see the longshoremen there, who will also quit at noon if the non-union men are not taken off the boats here. Advice from Bay City this afternoon, however, announces that no strike has taken place there, nor is there likely to be one.

The House Labor Committee at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, April 30.—The special investigating committee of the House of Representatives, after consulting with a delegation of merchants and business men, the different officials of the Gould system and the executive board, Knights of Labor, today decided to leave this morning for Bay City to see the longshoremen there, who will also quit at noon if the non-union men are not taken off the boats here. Advice from Bay City this afternoon, however, announces that no strike has taken place there, nor is there likely to be one.

Very Watchful Policemen.

DETROIT, Mich., April 30.—Patrick Hayes, an inmate patient confined at the county asylum, was brought to the city yesterday to be sent to his home at St. Mary's, Ont. He was taken to the foot of Woodward ave. and while waiting for the ferry made his escape. Late in the evening he was captured, left escaped again about 11 o'clock last night from the Brush st. depot, and is still at large. Hayes is violent at times, and the authorities are using all diligence to find him.

All About a Fire Bug.

JACKSON, Mich., April 30.—In the important case now pending in the local courts against Asa Seaver for burning certain blocks in Concord, a sensational feature was disclosed last night. A fellow prisoner of Seaver's on his release took to Concord a note addressed to "Friend George." By mistake it got into the wrong hands. The note accuses three prominent Concordians of paying Seaver $250 to burn the buildings in question. There is much excitement in Concord in consequence of this discovery.

Jonah Chipman for Congress.

DETROIT, April 30.—There is a rumor current that Judge J. Logan Chipman, of the Superior court of this city, will be pushed ahead for the Democratic nomination for Congress from this district. Democrats here are much disturbed over the bickering of Maybury and Burgett, the latter representing the Dickinson faction, and all concede that Judge Chipman would make a splendid compromise candidate and keep the local party in harmony.

Black Cat Coming.

KALAMAZOO, Mich., April 30.—The executive committee of the Southwestern Michigan Soldiers' and Sailors' association in session here last evening, resolved to hold an annual session association at Kalamazoo, the amount necessary to secure the meeting to be raised by citizens. Foy has returned from St. Louis, where he bought the Washburn for the bondholders, and says he doesn't know how soon the road will be transferred; it all depends upon the mortgages on the road are paid or strangled for. He emphatically denies that he represents Jay Gould in any manner whatsoever in the transaction.

Killed in the Woods.

OSHTOS, Mich., April 30.—This morning Walter Taylor was found dead in the woods near this place, and had evidently been run over by a train. He was 35 years old and left a widow and four small children.

FROM TEN TO EIGHT

The Change in Working Hours to be General.

A FREIGHT BLOCKADE FEARED.

Indications That There Will be Thirty Thousand Men on a Strike in Chicago Today—Trouble Feared at the Stock Yards.

CHICAGO, April 30.—The indications in this city are that there will be trouble in many cases in inaugurating the changes in the working hours from ten to eight. But there is every reason to believe that in nearly every case the question at issue can be settled, and the new system put to a test at least without interruption to business. Almost every trade union in the city and throughout the country is pledged to stand for eight hours and demand that only, but as the time draws near for enforcing it, trade after trade and union after union have begun to break the line and vary the demand. Many have complied their request for short hours with an expressed determination to accept nothing less than the ten hours day. This the leaders of the movement, a rare feat, is the great and only obstacle to the movement. In the North Chicago rolling mill at South Chicago, there is great excitement because the men employed in the blast furnaces, about two hundred and fifty in number, are threatening to strike. The workers in all other departments are entirely satisfied with the treatment they have received from the company. President Foster has given the men a full and complete explanation of the blast furnace men, so the others say, and has offered to submit the other points of difference, which are not of a serious nature, but which the men did not accept, them, and for a day or two past they have assumed a threatening attitude. If they quit work 1:00 will be compelled to remain idle.
